

David GONSKI AC (Chairman)
BCom, LLB (UNSW), FAICD (Life),
FCPA

David Gonski is the Chancellor of the University of New South Wales. He is also Chairman of the Australia and New Zealand Banking Group, Coca-Cola Amatil Limited, the National E-Health Transition Authority Ltd and the Sydney Theatre Company.

David is also a director of Infrastructure NSW and Singapore Telecommunications Limited, a member of the ASIC External Advisory Panel and the board of the Lowy Institute for International Policy. He is a patron of the Australian Indigenous Education Foundation.

Richard ALCOCK
BCom, LLB (UNSW)

Richard Alcock is Managing Director of Investment Banking at Merrill Lynch. Prior to joining Merrill Lynch Richard was a Senior Corporate Partner of Allens Arthur Robinson and held various offices including Head of Governance and Chairman of the firm's Ethics Committee.

Richard's other roles include member of the Advisory Board of the Australian Government Solicitor, member of the Governing Council and Chairman of the Finance & Performance Committee of The Sydney Children's Hospital Network (Randwick and Westmead), member of the Board of Art Exhibitions Australia Limited, member of the Council of Knox Grammar School and Chairman of the Advisory Board of the UNSW Law Faculty.

Richard was previously a member of the Australia Indonesia Institute and a Director of Sydney Children's Hospital Foundation.

Richard holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree and a Bachelor of Laws, both from UNSW.

Robert Hugh BARRY
BCom (UNSW)

Chairman of Pengana Holdings Pty Ltd. Mr Barry has extensive experience in the capital markets both in Australia and overseas. He was the co-founder of Dominguez & Barry and Chief Executive of Dominguez Barry Samuel Montagu Limited, a predecessor to UBS Australia, and Head of International Capital Markets for the Midland Bank Group.

Mr Barry was previously Chairman of Snowy Hydro Limited, Deputy Chairman of AWB Limited, and a Director of a number of public and charitable organisations. He is currently a Non Executive Director of Uniseed Management Pty Ltd.

Dr Anthony BERG AM
BEc (Hons) (Syd), MBA (Harvard)

Tony Berg graduated from the University of Sydney with an Honours degree in Economics, and received an MBA with High Distinction from the Harvard Graduate School of Management. Between 1970 and 1972 he worked on Wall Street, and in 1972 joined Hill Samuel Australia becoming Managing Director in 1984. When Hill Samuel became Macquarie Bank in 1985, he was appointed its first Managing Director and CEO.

In 1994 Mr Berg was appointed Managing Director and CEO of Boral Limited, and joined Gresham Partners as an Executive Director when he retired in 2000. Mr Berg is Chairman of Jawun, Corporate Indigenous Partnerships and a former director of Djarragun College, an indigenous school. He is a director of The National Gallery of Australia Foundation. He was Chair of the Advisory Council of the Australian School of Business at UNSW and remains a member.

Robert CAMERON AO
BE (Hons), MBA, GradDip
Geoscience, FAusIMM, FAIM, FAICD

Bob is the founder and Chairman (Non-Executive Director) of Centennial Coal Company Limited and was its Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer until 30 June 2011.

Bob's other roles include Chairman of County Coal Limited, Pacific Smiles Group and Hunter Valley Training Company Limited. He is a Trustee of the Museum of Applied Arts and Sciences.

Bob is a member of the Deans Industrial Steering Committee for the UNSW Faculty of Engineering and Chairman of the Minerals Industry Advisory Council for the School of Mining Engineering at UNSW.

Dr Robert Every AO

BSc (Hons) (UNSW), PhD (UNSW),
FTSE, FAICD, FIE Aust

Chairman of Wesfarmers since November 2008, director since 2006.

Bob was the Chairman of Steel and Tube Holdings Limited and Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer of OneSteel Limited. Other executive positions previously held include Chief Executive Officer of Steel and Tube Holdings Limited, Managing Director of Tubemakers of Australia Limited and President of BHP Steel.

Other directorships/offices include Chairman of Boral Limited (since May 2010), and Director of Harry Perkins Institute of Medical Research.

Dr Holly FORSYTH

BA (UQ), PhD (UNSW)

Dr Holly Kerr Forsyth has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Queensland, graduated from the Ryde College of Horticulture, Sydney, and has a PhD in History from the University of New South Wales. As well as writing for a range of mainstream and academic publications, her writing on gardens, landscape, environment and social geography can be found each Saturday in The Weekend Australian. Holly's doctoral thesis – titled 'From the British Pastoral to the Australian Arcadia: Women, Transferred Vision and the Reconstruction of Landscape' - addresses the ways in which colonial and post colonial women in European-settled Australia reconstructed the landscape they found into their vision of an English Arcadia. Holly instigated the annual Ian J Bickerton Postgraduate History Prize in honour of historian, Associate Professor Ian Bickerton.

The author of eleven books on gardens and gardening, Holly is in demand for speaking engagements around Australia, and overseas, presenting illustrated lectures on her books and on garden history. She is also in demand as an after dinner speaker and as a presenter. Prior to her writing she had founded and run her own PR agency for some 20 years.

Daniel GAUCHAT

BCom (UNSW), MBA (INSEAD), AICD

Daniel Gauchat is a Founding Partner of The Adelante Group, which provides CEO and Senior Executive Mentoring Services.

Until the end of 2006 he was a Senior Client Partner and Head of Global Consumer/Life Sciences Markets, Australasia in the Sydney office of Korn/Ferry International. Mr Gauchat joined the firm in 1999, previously having been an Equity Partner with another major search firm AMROP International. In 1995, Mr Gauchat became Vice-Chairman of the company's international Board and Executive Committee and in 1997, was appointed Chairman for a two-year period.

Prior to his career in the executive search industry, Mr Gauchat held a number of senior management positions for Société Generale de Surveillance (SGS), including Senior Vice President and Director of the SGS Group in Switzerland, Chief Executive Officer of SGS Spain, SGS Thailand and SGS Indonesia, as well as General Manager of SGS in Japan. Before joining SGS, Mr Gauchat worked for Grace Industrial Chemicals in Europe and as Operations Manager for the Coca-Cola Export Corporation in Australia.

Mr Gauchat has an MBA from INSEAD and holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Merit) from UNSW, and has an AICD Diploma (Merit). He has been awarded a Doctor (hc) of the University of New South Wales for services to the community and UNSW.

Mr Gauchat is President of the Australasian Advisory Council of INSEAD and a company member of Winifred West Schools. He was the founding Chairman of the UNSW Medicine Advisory Council and is a member of the Dean's Circle. He is also a member of the UNSW Risk Committee.

Dr Catherine HARRIS AO PSM

BCom (UNSW), FAICD

Chairperson, Harris Farm Markets Pty Ltd.

Ms Harris has had an extensive career in both the public and private sectors. As well as her commercial activities she has contributed to a number of boards.

She is a recipient of the Public Service Medal, the Centenary Medal and an Officer of the Order of Australia. Ms Harris is a Director of the Australia Rugby League Commission, a Director of The Australian Ballet and a Director of the National Gallery of Australia and was Deputy Chancellor of UNSW from 2000 - 2004.

Professor Frederick G HILMER AO
LLB (Syd), LLM (Pennsylvania), MBA
(Wharton)

Professor Fred Hilmer was appointed President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of New South Wales on 19 June 2006. Prior to taking up this position, he was Chief Executive Officer, John Fairfax Holdings Limited from 1998 - 2005. Before joining Fairfax he was Dean and Director of the Australian Graduate School of Management (AGSM) in UNSW and a Director of Port Jackson Partners Limited. Prior to joining the AGSM, Professor Hilmer was a director of McKinsey & Company—responsible for managing the Australian practice.

Professor Hilmer holds a degree in law from the University of Sydney, an LLM from the University of Pennsylvania, and a Master of Business Administration degree from the Wharton School of Finance where he was appointed a Joseph Wharton Fellow. In 1991 the Australian Institute of Management awarded him a special John Storey medal for distinguished contribution to the advancement of management thinking in Australia. Professor Hilmer was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia in 1998 for his services to management education, competition policy and workplace reform.

Earlier in his career Professor Hilmer was a member of the Faculty of Law at the University of Pennsylvania and he also practised law in Australia. He served on the Committee of Inquiry into Management Education during 1981 and 1982. He was a member of the Commonwealth Higher Education Council and Chairman of the Business Council of Australia's Employee Relations Study Group. In 1992 and 1993 he chaired the National Competition Policy Review Committee.

Professor Hilmer has served as a Director on many Australian company boards. He previously served as Chairman of Pacific Power, Deputy Chairman of Foster's Brewing Group Limited and was a long-standing Director of Westfield Holdings Limited. In 2010 Professor Hilmer was made a Honorary Fellow of CPA Australia. Fred Hilmer served as Convenor of the New South Wales Vice-Chancellors' Committee (NSWVCC) from 2009 to 2011. He also served as Chair of the Group of Eight (Go8) from 2012 to 2013. He is the current Chair of Universitas 21, appointed in May 2013.

He has written extensively on strategy, organisation and economic reform and is the author of a number of books, including: When The Luck Runs Out, New Games/New Rules, co-authored Strictly Boardroom, Working Relations and Management Redeemed, and, most recently, The Fairfax Experience – What The Management Texts Didn't Teach Me.

Professor Mark HOFFMAN

BEng (Mech) (Hons) (Syd), PhD (Syd),
MBT (UNSW)

Mark Hoffman is Pro Vice-Chancellor Research at the University of New South Wales. In this role he provides strategic leadership in the generation of external research income and improving UNSW's overall research performance, including UNSW's international research strategy, research partnerships, eResearch strategy, research ethics and safety and effective promotion of the University's research capability and research profile.

Professor Hoffman holds a Bachelor of Engineering and PhD from the University of Sydney and a Masters of Business and Technology from UNSW. He has held research positions at the University of California, Berkeley, Tokyo Metropolitan University, the University of Technology, Darmstadt, Germany, and at the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore. He first joined the academic staff of UNSW in 1997 and held the positions of Head of School of Materials Science and Engineering from 2007-12 and Associate Dean Research in the Faculty of Science from 2008-12.

He has twice received the UNSW Vice-Chancellor's Award for Teaching; for undergraduate education and research supervision. He is a Fellow of the Institute of Engineers. He has published over 170 papers across a range of fields in materials science including nanocomposites and biomaterials and has supervised over 18 PhD students.

Cassandra KELLY

BEC (Hons) (Syd), FFin

Cassandra is Joint CEO of independent corporate advisory business, Pottinger. She has domestic and international experience directing, managing and advising major corporations and governments across most sectors including financial services, retail, technology, digital media, telecommunications, property, energy and resources, consumer and clean energy.

Prior to returning to Australia, she was the Vice-President of GMAC Commercial Holding Asia and Board member of GMAC Commercial Mortgage Japan. She has also held executive roles at companies including Deutsche Bank (New York and London); HSBC Investment Bank (London); and McKinsey & Company (Sydney, Johannesburg and London).

Cassandra is a keen philanthropist, having supported not for profit organisations in Europe and Australia. She has a particular interest in social justice. She is a Director of the UNSW Foundation, is on the Advisory Board of the CEO Sleepout, and is an Ambassador for One Million Women and for Dry July. She was previously a director of Starlight Children's Foundation and Children's Cancer Institute Australia and Vice President of Women in Banking and Finance. She co-founded the Glass Elevator, which reflects her commitment to supporting and nurturing female talent.

In 2012, Cassandra was recognised by the Financial Review/Westpac 100 Women of Influence awards as one of the most influential women in management and the boardroom.

Dr Wal KING AO (Deputy Chair)

BE, MengSc, Hon DSc (UNSW), Hon FIEAust, CPEng, FAICD, FAIM, FAIB, FTSE

Former Chief Executive Officer, Leighton Holdings Limited. Deputy Chairman, Ausdrill Limited. Director, Coca-Cola Amatil Limited, Kimberley Foundation Australia Limited and Garvan Research Foundation. Senior Adviser, CITIC Pacific Limited. Council Member, University of New South Wales (2006-2012).

Mr King has worked in the construction industry for over 40 years and was Chief Executive Officer of Leighton Holdings Limited, a company with substantial operations in Australia, Asia and the Middle East, from 1987 until his retirement on 31 December 2010. He remains as a consultant.

Christine Margaret McNAMEE LIDDY AO

BA (UNSW), FAICD

Christine McNamee Liddy is a former Board Member and Past President of the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia (South Eastern Section) and a Former National Vice-President of the RFDS. She is Board member of the Australasian Gastro-Intestinal Trials Group (GI Cancer Institute) and is also on the Board of the Gastro-Intestinal Cancer Institute of New Zealand. She is a Board Member of the UNSW Foundation and the Dame Pattie Menzies Foundation. Christine was the Founder of All Purpose Indoor Plant Hire, which she owned and ran for thirty seven years before selling to a multinational in 2010. She remains a Partner in Australian Plantscapes. She is also a Council Member of the Friends of the Sydney International Piano Competition and an Advisory Board Member of the Mosman Art Gallery and Cultural Centre and a former member of the Capital Campaign Committee of the State Library of NSW. She is a member of the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia Capital Campaign Committee. (Friends of the RFDS) She is a member of the UNSW Irish Studies Advisory Committee.

Christine's former roles include, Board Member Frontline Defence Services for the Australian Army and Air Force, Member of the Committee for the Foundation of the Centre of Modern Irish Studies (UNSW), Council Member of the Art Gallery Society of NSW (for twenty two years including an eight year period as the Honorary Secretary), Council Member of the Foundation for Classical Archaeology Sydney University, a member of the Aircraft Replacement Committee (Royal Flying Doctor Service). Christine is a former Chairman of St John's College within the University of Sydney.

Dr Peter Edward MASON AM
BCom (Hons), MBA (UNSW),
Honorary Doctorate of Business
(UNSW)

Peter Mason is a Senior Advisor to UBS Investment Bank; and a Non-Executive Director of Singapore Telecommunications Ltd (SingTel).

Peter is Chairman of the Centre for International Finance and Regulation (CIFR); Chairman of the UBS Australia Foundation; a Trustee of the Sydney Opera House Trust; a Director of The University of New South Wales Foundation; and an Ambassador for the Australian Indigenous Education Foundation.

Peter has over 40 years' experience in investment banking. He was Chairman of AMP Limited from 2005 to May 2014 (Director from 2003), and Chairman of David Jones Limited from 2013-2104 (Director from 2007). Peter was Chairman of JP Morgan in Australia from 2000 to 2005 and Executive Chairman of their associate, Ord Minnett Group. Prior to that he was Chairman and Chief Executive of Schroders Australia Limited and Group Managing Director of Schroders' investment banking businesses in the Asia Pacific region. Peter was a member of the Council of the University of New South Wales for 13 years. For 12 years he was a Director of the Children's Hospital in Sydney and Chairman of the Children's Hospital Fund for eight years. Peter was appointed a member of the Order of Australia for his contribution to the Children's Hospital.

Bruce MORGAN
BCom (UNSW)

Bruce's career has been in professional services having been a partner with leading firm PwC for more than 25 years. Bruce served as Chairman of PricewaterhouseCoopers(PwC) between 2005 and 2012. In 2009 he was elected as a member of the PwC International Board serving a four year term. He was previously Managing Partner of the firm's Sydney and Brisbane offices. An audit partner of the firm for more than 25 years, he focused on the financial services, energy and mining sectors, leading some of the firm's most significant clients in Australia and internationally.

Bruce is Chairman of Sydney Water, a Director of Origin Energy, Caltex Australia, the European Australian Business Council and of Redkite. He is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia. Bruce holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting and Finance) from UNSW.

Warwick NEGUS

BBus (UTS), MComm (UNSW), SFFin, MAICD

Warwick's career in the finance industry has spanned working in Australia, Asia and the UK in both funds management and investment banking.

He was a Vice President of Bankers Trust Australia from 1987 until 1993 in their Investment Management Group before moving to Goldman Sachs in Hong Kong where he established their Fund Management business. He later moved to Singapore and eventually London as Managing Director and Chief Investment Officer of Global Emerging Markets and Global Equities.

In 1999 he returned to Australia with Goldman as Managing Director for Investment Banking where he remained until 2002.

In 2003 he left Goldman to establish an independent fund company. He sold a stake in this business to the Commonwealth Bank in 2005 and moved to Colonial First State Global Asset Management, Australia's largest fund manager, as its Chief Executive Officer. He remained in this role until 2008.

Warwick is now a director of a number of private companies in the property, finance and hospitality industries.

He is a member of the Council of UNSW where he is also Presiding Member of its Finance Committee. He is also a member of the Advisory Council of both the Australian School of Business and the Centre for Social Impact, Director of the UNSW Foundation Limited Board and Chair of its Finance Committee, Chairman of the Investment Committee for the Salvation Army and a member of its Sydney Advisory Board and a Director and National Vice President of the Financial Services Institute of Australasia.

Tim OLSEN

BEd (UNSW)

Tim Olsen is one of Australia's most recognised and respected art identities and successful gallery owners. Son of Australia's national living treasure, artist Dr John Olsen, A.O. O.B.E., Olsen was born into a life of modern and contemporary art, and through fortitude and adversity has forged his own path, successful career and has become a highly recognised Australian over the past three decades.

Tim Olsen has also worked in and managed many leading Art Galleries including Rex Irwin Art Gallery, Woollahra; Australian Galleries, Collingwood and Paddington; and Roslyn Oxley9 Gallery, Paddington. He established his own Gallery in 1993, which has rapidly expanded to become one of Sydney's leading galleries today, marking his contribution and commitment to the Australian art scene. He not only has supported the careers of many of Australia's leading established artists but also has nurtured the creative lives of many emerging artists who can presently include themselves as being very much part of the art establishment today.

Representing over 40 artists, Olsen has established himself as a leader in Contemporary Art, with a client base extending throughout Australia and the world. He has been a foundation member of the AGNSW for over 15 years and is dedicated to its restoration department and also a major donor and benefactor to the MCA. Tim

Olsen has been a patron of the King's School Art Prize for over twelve years and for over ten years sponsored the annual Tim Olsen Drawing Prize at COFA. He is on the foundation board of the University of New South Wales, which includes some of Australia's most influential academic leaders and captains of industry and culture. He was also recently invited onto the board of the National Art School in East Sydney. Tim has been strongly associated with many charities directly and is constantly donating the gallery itself for fundraising events that include the Royal Randwick Children's Hospital, the St Vincent's Hospital Curran Foundation through to Oxfam to name a few. As a creative business visionary he was recently invited to join EO (Entrepreneurs Organisation) a selected forum of leading entrepreneurs.

Simon POIDEVIN OAM
BSc (Hons) (UNSW)

Simon Poidevin OAM is Managing Director – Corporate Stockbroking at Bell Financial Group, a leading Australian full service broking and financial advisory firm.

Prior to joining BFG, Simon was an executive director at Bizzell Capital Partners, and before that he worked at Pengana Capital, an Australian based Absolute Return funds management company, as an Executive Director. Simon continues a close association with Pengana Capital through an ongoing consulting role.

Simon has worked in Global Financial Markets for over 28 years, spending 14 years with Citigroup, culminating in heading the firm's Corporate Equity Broking division in Australia.

In March 2011, Simon was appointed to the Board of Dart Energy, an Australian S&P/ASX listed company and resigned from the Board in November 2013

Simon represented Australia in Rugby Union from 1980 to 1991, captaining the Wallabies in 1986 and 1987 and becoming the first Wallaby to play 50 test matches. In total he played 59 test matches including 21 against the New Zealand All Blacks; a record for an Australian forward. In 1991 Simon was a member of the first Wallaby team to win the Rugby World Cup.

Simon is currently the Co-President of the Classic Wallabies, the living heritage of Australian Rugby and encompasses all players who have been selected to play for the Wallabies.

Simon was awarded an OAM in 1988 and awarded the Centenary Medal in 2003. He was inducted into the Australian Hall of Fame in 1991. Simon is also an emeritus member of the Ben Lexcen Sports scholarship committee and co-founded the establishment of the "Lexcen Scholarships" in 1988. The "Ben Lexcen Sports Scholarships" program has supported over 190 UNSW Athletes since its creation.

He holds a Bachelor of Science (Honours) from the University of New South Wales, a Blue in Rugby Union and is a member of both the UNSW Sporting Hall of Fame and the UNSW Faculty of Science Hall of Fame.

Julian REYNOLDS

BCom (Hons) (UNSW), MBA
(Stanford), CPA, MSAA

Joint Managing Director, Reynolds Equities Pty Limited.

Julian is a founder and Director of Reynolds Equities - a member firm of the RBS Morgans Stockbroking and Financial Planning Group. He has been actively involved in the Australian securities industry for the past 45 years and specialises in private client investment advice. During this time Julian has served on the Boards of both Public Companies and Charitable organisations.

Julian has been an Australian School of Business Alumni Leader at UNSW since 2005. He was previously a Governor on the UNSW Alumni Association Board 2000-2010.

Jillian SEGAL AM

BA LLB (UNSW), LLM (Harvard),
FAICD

Jillian Segal was appointed Deputy Chancellor of UNSW Australia in January 2010. She has been a member of the University's Council, its governing body, since 2006. She is a professional company director with a legal and regulatory background. Currently, she is a director of ASX Limited and the National Australia Bank. She is also Chairman of the General Sir John Monash Foundation, a member of the Remuneration Tribunal and the Sydney Advisory Council of the Centre for Social Impact, and on the board of the Garvan Institute of Medical Research. Jillian was appointed a trustee of the Sydney Opera House Trust on the 1st January 2014.

Jillian was a Commissioner and Deputy Chair at the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) from 1997 to 2002. She was a member of the Dawson Committee which reviewed the Trade Practices Act in 2002, was a member of the Business Regulatory Advisory Group from 2005 to 2008. She has also served on a number of other government and private sector boards, including being Chair of the Banking & Financial Services Ombudsman Board, a member of the Australia Council's Major Performing Arts Board and President of the Administrative Review Council.

Prior to her time at ASIC, Jillian practised as a corporate and environmental partner at Allen Allen & Hemsley (now Allens Linklaters) and also worked for Davis Polk & Wardwell in New York.

Jillian graduated BA. LL.B with the University Medal for law from UNSW and has an LL.M from Harvard University. Jillian was awarded a Centenary Medal in 2003 for services to society through business leadership, in 2005 appointed a Member of the Order of Australia for services to business law, and received a UNSW Alumni Achievement Award.

Shane SIMPSON AM

LLB (Hons) (Auckland), MJur
(Auckland)

Shane Simpson is Special Counsel at Simpsons Solicitors. He is on the Council of the Australian National Maritime Museum, Chairman of the Bundanon Trust and the Peggy Glanville-Hicks Composers' House Trust, and a director of the Australian National Academy of Music and the Luca and Anita Belgiorino-Nettis Foundation. He chairs the UNSW College of Fine Arts Advisory Council.

He is the author of many books including 'Visual Artists and the Law', 'Music Business', and 'Collections Law: Legal Issues for Australian Archives, Galleries, Libraries and Museums'.

Dr Colin SUTTON

BSc (UNSW), PhD (UNSW), FAICD

Dr Sutton is an Adjunct Professor of the Graduate School of Biomedical Engineering at UNSW. He is a Non-Executive Director of New South Innovations Pty Ltd and the UNSW Foundation. He is Director of the Australian Gastro-Intestinal Trials Group and a Director of the Bionic Vision Australia Consortium.

He is a former member of the council of the National Health and Medical Council. He was a member of the Grants Committee of Innovation Australia within the Department of Innovation, Industry, Science and Research and was a director of the North Shore Heart Research Foundation

Dr Sutton has had a long career in the international medical device industry. Most recently he was Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer of Ventracor Limited, a position he held until his retirement in 2006.

Prior to that he was CEO of Sirtex Medical Limited from 2000 to 2003, where he was responsible for the commercialisation of a new liver cancer therapy. Dr Sutton was also Chairman of Polartech Limited and has served on various other company boards.

Dr Sutton holds a DEng and a PhD from the School of Chemical Engineering, University of New South Wales. He is a Life Member of the UNSW Sports Association and is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Albert Yue-Ling WONG

BCom (UNSW), FFin, MSDIA, FAICD

Originally from Hong Kong, Mr Wong has lived in Australia for over 38 years and has been involved in the stockbroking and investment banking industry for over 30 years. He was admitted as a Member of the Australian Stock Exchange in 1988 and was the principal of Intersuisse Limited until 1995 when he established the Barton Capital group of companies, including eStar, both companies were listed on the Australian Securities Exchange. He was the business partner of former NSW Premier, The Hon. Neville Wran AC QC at Wran Partners from 2004-2011.

Currently, Mr Wong is Chairman of Winmar Resources Limited and Deputy Chairman of Prima BioMed Limited and Kimberley Diamonds Limited. Mr Wong has been widely involved in philanthropic activities including his directorships on UNSW Foundation, Ian Thorpe's Fountain for Youth Foundation and Honorary Life Governor and President of the Physics Foundation at The University of Sydney. More recently, he has been invited to join the Board of the Children's Medical Research Institute. Mr Wong is a Fellow of the Financial Services Institute of Australasia and a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.
