Be part of supporting the growth of our future.

Your bequest can help change the world

You can play an important role in shaping the future by making a bequest to the University of New South Wales. Your support could provide scholarships, research funding and improve educational facilities. Donations and bequests play a vital part in preparing future generations to take on the world and tackle some of society’s most complex challenges. With your support we can continue to attract and retain the trailblazing researchers and academics who are building on the powerhouse of knowledge and inspiring their students at one of Australia’s top universities.

UNSW’s aspiration is to be a leading research intensive university in the Asia-Pacific region, focusing on contemporary and social issues through defined strengths in professional and scientific fields – a peer in good standing with the best globally.

We invite you to help us to grow tomorrow’s leaders.

Receiving the Joyce T Brophy Scholarship has brought security and a certainty that I will be able to become the student I wish to be. Jordan Sandral, Faculty of Medicine, 2008 scholarship recipient.

“Receiving the Joyce T Brophy Scholarship has brought security and a certainty that I will be able to become the student I wish to be.” Jordan Sandral, Faculty of Medicine, 2008 scholarship recipient.

“Receiving the Joyce T Brophy Scholarship has brought security and a certainty that I will be able to become the student I wish to be.” Jordan Sandral, Faculty of Medicine, 2008 scholarship recipient.
ways your bequest can make a difference

Unrestricted Bequest
Bequests made without specified intentions will be directed to the institutional areas of need within the University. An unrestricted bequest can be directed towards:

• Supporting research
• Establishing a scholarship
• Building a powerhouse library
• Establishing a Chair

Support research
Your bequest will assist to:

You could formulate your bequest to assist UNSW researchers across life-threatening conditions. For example, research into HIV/AIDS, cancer, social policy and the search for sustained solutions, climate change, alternative energy and sustainability. Unrestricted bequests can be directed to meet the big challenges that UNSW scientists are tackling.

Establish a scholarship
Your bequest will assist to:

You could establish a scholarship, award or prize for students:

• targeted studies or undertaken by the most capable and talented students
• for students who might not have the opportunity to access higher education

Build a powerhouse library
Unrestricted bequests to the Library collection provide access to over 200,000 electronic and print resources. The Library’s print collection includes a vast number of books and periodicals, as well as a wealth of other resources.

Every dollar donated to the Library attracts an additional 20 cents from the Australian Government.

Establish a Chair
Your bequest will assist to:

You could help fund a Chair in an important field of research.

Suggested wording:
I give to the University of New South Wales the sum of $... or xx%, share, residue of my estate, which I direct to be paid free of all expenses and duties of whatever kind and I express the wish that this be done in the name of [insert your chosen name] and direct that the receipt from the University of New South Wales shall be sufficient discharge to the estate of the deceased.

Support of teaching, research and scholarships.

• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest
• Percentage bequest

Options for consideration include:

• Percentage bequest
• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest

Suggested wording:
I give to the University of New South Wales the sum of $... or xx%, share, residue of my estate, which I direct to be paid free of all expenses and duties of whatever kind and I express the wish that this be done in the name of [insert your chosen name] and direct that the receipt from the University of New South Wales shall be sufficient discharge to the estate of the deceased.

Support of teaching, research and scholarships.

• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest
• Percentage bequest

Options for consideration include:

• Percentage bequest
• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest

Suggested wording:
I give to the University of New South Wales the sum of $... or xx%, share, residue of my estate, which I direct to be paid free of all expenses and duties of whatever kind and I express the wish that this be done in the name of [insert your chosen name] and direct that the receipt from the University of New South Wales shall be sufficient discharge to the estate of the deceased.

Support of teaching, research and scholarships.

• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest
• Percentage bequest

Options for consideration include:

• Percentage bequest
• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest

Suggested wording:
I give to the University of New South Wales the sum of $... or xx%, share, residue of my estate, which I direct to be paid free of all expenses and duties of whatever kind and I express the wish that this be done in the name of [insert your chosen name] and direct that the receipt from the University of New South Wales shall be sufficient discharge to the estate of the deceased.

Support of teaching, research and scholarships.

• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest
• Percentage bequest

Options for consideration include:

• Percentage bequest
• Pecuniary bequest
• Residual bequest

Suggested wording:
I give to the University of New South Wales the sum of $... or xx%, share, residue of my estate, which I direct to be paid free of all expenses and duties of whatever kind and I express the wish that this be done in the name of [insert your chosen name] and direct that the receipt from the University of New South Wales shall be sufficient discharge to the estate of the deceased.

Support of teaching, research and scholarships.
ways your bequest can make a difference

1. Unencumbered Bequest
Bequests made without specified intentions will be directed to the most vital areas of need within the University. An unencumbered bequest is the most flexible way to benefit the future generations of UNSW.

2. Support research
Your bequest can support research and teaching at UNSW, attract internationally renowned academics and bring internationally recognised research to UNSW.

3. Fund scholarships, bursaries, and prizes
You could establish a scholarship, award or prize to support students through their studies, meet the basic living costs of disadvantaged students, and support students and their families during times of need, including situations that arise due to illness, mental health disorders, and other life-threatening conditions.

4. Build a powerhouse for learning, teaching, and research
A bequest to UNSW Library is needed to expand this vital area of the University.

5. Capital Projects
Your bequest may provide support for capital works that will improve student facilities and allow UNSW to embark on capital projects.

6. Establish academic leadership
Academic chairs, professorships and lectureships are provided to globally recognised, distinguished records of achievement who are prepared to lead UNSW through the next century. UNSW bequests can help fund a Chair in any field of research.

How to include the University of New South Wales in your will?

You should make a bequest of $... or xx% share, residue of your estate, which I direct to be paid free of all expenses and duties of whatsoever kind and I express the wish that...

Suggested wording:
I give to the University of New South Wales the sum of $... or xx% share, residue of my estate, which I direct to be paid free of all expenses and duties of whatsoever kind and I express the wish that...

* Please note: You can make a donation to and bequest within a single document.

To discuss how you can make a donation or bequest to UNSW, please contact:

For your appointment: please contact Anne, on 02 9385 3282 or you may return this form to:

UNSW Foundation
P.O. Box 1244
UNSW Sydney NSW 2052

Fax: (02) 9385 3673

Please send me the UNSW Wills & Bequest pack

Please ring me to discuss my provision for UNSW in my Will

Please make a bequest to UNSW in my Will

Name and Address Details

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>First Name</th>
<th>Middle Name</th>
<th>Last Name</th>
<th>Address</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

I have made a bequest to UNSW in my...
Be part of supporting the growth of our future.

Wills and Bequests

Your bequest can help change the world
You can play an important role in shaping the future by making a bequest to the University of New South Wales.

Your support could provide scholarships, research funding and improve educational facilities.

Donations and bequests play a vital part in preparing future generations to take on the world and tackle some of society’s most complex challenges. With your support we can continue to attract and retain the trailblazing researchers and academics who are building on the powerhouse of knowledge and inspiring their students at one of Australia’s top universities.

UNSW’s aspiration is to be a leading research intensive university in the Asia-Pacific region, focusing on contemporary and social issues through defined strengths in professional and scientific fields - a peer in good standing with the best globally.

We invite you to help us to grow tomorrow’s leaders.

“Receiving the Joyce T Brophy Scholarship has brought security and a certainty that I will be able to become the student I wish to be.” Jordan Sandral, Faculty of Medicine, scholarship recipient.

“There are only two lasting bequests we can hope to give our young people – one is roots, the other is wings.” Hodding Carter

To get in contact, call us +61 (2) 9385 8519 or email r.troth@unsw.edu.au

Receiving the Joyce T Brophy Scholarship has brought security and a certainty that I will be able to become the student I wish to be. Jordan Sandral, Faculty of Medicine, scholarship recipient.